Proceedings of the Government of Mysore, Public Works, dated 1st June 1899.

READ—

Note by the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated 20th January 1899, stating that, under the Mysore Service Regulations, Articles 287 and 230 (b), three months' notice has to be given to permanent hands, and one month's notice to temporary hands, whose appointment Government wish to abolish, and this being the case, it seems nothing but fair that, on the other hand, officials who wish to resign their appointments, should give Government some notice of their intention to do so; and suggesting the introduction of a rule to this effect, fixing the notice at, say, one month, in order to prevent the inconvenience to the public service, that now occurs by an official abruptly resigning his appointment, such notice being sufficient to arrange for getting another hand to fill the place of the man that is vacating.

No. 549-56—2794-801, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST JUNE 1899.

ORDER THEREON.—The Government is pleased to rule that all officials, whether permanent or temporary, who wish to resign their appointments, should invariably give one month's notice to the head of their office, of their intention to do so.
